Part Four: Reading Comprehension:

Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions.

(1) Friendship is one of the most beautiful gifts in life. A true friend is someone who stands by you in good times and bad, who listens without judging, and who brings out the best in you. Friends laugh with you, cheer you up when you're sad, and celebrate your achievements as if they were their own.

(2) Friendship isn't about how many friends you have, but about how deep and strong the bond is. Friendship grows with kindness, trust, and respect. Even a simple message or a helping hand can mean a lot to a friend.

(3) In the journey of life, friends are the ones who make every step brighter. So, appreciate your friends, be there for them, and always remember—true friendship is a treasure that never fades.

(4) In conclusion, friendship is important because it brings love, support, and happiness into our lives. True friends help us grow, stay strong during tough times, and share our joys.

1. What is the text MAINLY about?

A. How to help friends

B. How to make friends
