Total/40

Living in Tokyo, Japan offers a fascinating mix of ancient tradition and modern innovation. Many people admire the country's strong sense of harmony, politeness, and community spirit. Public transport is reliable, streets are clean, and crime rates are low, which makes everyday life feel safe and organised. Residents often say that teamwork, discipline, and attention to detail are highly valued, helping everything run smoothly. However, daily life can also be demanding. The culture expects people to work long hours, show respect in every situation, and follow social rules closely, which can sometimes limit personal freedom. The high cost of living and limited space in large cities may also challenge those who prefer a slower lifestyle or more privacy.

Dubai, in contrast, attracts people who value ambition, opportunity, and diversity. The city offers tax-free salaries, a strong economy, and a modern lifestyle supported by world-class facilities. Its warm climate and safe environment make it an appealing place for families and professionals alike. Dubai's multicultural society promotes respect and coexistence, allowing residents to experience different cultures, traditions, and cuisines every day. While the pace of life can be fast and the cost of living high, many appreciate how Dubai encourages innovation, progress, and success while preserving its cultural values and sense of community.

Both Japan and Dubai combine tradition with modern life in unique ways, offering rewarding experiences for people with different goals and lifestyles.

Main Idea Writing Rubric

	Task completion	Language Use	Organisation and Clarity
5	Accurately identifies the main idea in own words, fully capturing the meaning of the text.	Uses clear and precise language; minimal errors that do not affect meaning.	Response is well-organised, cohesive, and easy to follow.
4	Identifies the main idea mostly in own words, with minor copying or omission of small details.	Mostly accurate use of simple language; minor grammar or spelling errors.	Generally clear; ideas follow a logical order.
3	Partially identifies the main idea; shows some understanding but lacks full accuracy.	Uses basic language with some repetition or errors affecting clarity.	Some organisation present but may lack cohesion or clarity.
2	Attempts to state the main idea but misunderstands or only partly conveys it.	Limited language control; frequent errors may obscure meaning.	Response lacks clear organisation; meaning is hard to follow.
1	Does not identify the main idea; response is mostly copied or irrelevant.	Very limited or inaccurate language; meaning unclear.	Disorganised or incoherent.
0	No response, or entirety of response plagiarised.

Question 1.2

1. Task Completion

- Judge how effectively the response addresses all elements of the prompt.
- A Band 5 response fully develops all required aspects with clarity and detail.
- Mid bands (3–4) may show coverage of most aspects but lack depth or elaboration.
- Bands 1–2 indicate incomplete, off-topic, or superficial coverage.
- Consider depth, focus, and relevance — not just length — when awarding marks.

2. Structure

- Evaluate how well the student organises ideas logically into paragraphs.
- High-band responses show clear structure with introduction, main body, and conclusion, and use cohesive devices appropriately.
- Band 3 may show partial structure or limited paragraph control.
- Bands 1–2 often lack paragraphing or cohesion.
- At this level, students should demonstrate awareness of audience and academic tone.

3. Grammar

- Assess range and control of grammatical forms.
- Band 5 demonstrates consistent accuracy with both simple and complex structures.
- Bands 3–4 show good command of basic forms, though errors may occur with complex ones.
- Bands 1–2 rely on very limited grammar, often affecting readability.
- Do not penalise occasional slips that do not interfere with meaning.

4. Vocabulary

- Evaluate the range, precision, and appropriacy of word choice.
- Higher bands (4–5) use topic-specific, technical, or sophisticated vocabulary appropriately.
- Band 3 may depend on common vocabulary with limited variety.
- Bands 1–2 show restricted or inaccurate use of vocabulary.
- Reward appropriate word selection, even if spelling is imperfect.

5. Spelling and Punctuation

- Focus on how spelling and punctuation contribute to clarity and accuracy.
- High-band responses show consistent accuracy in complex forms.
- Band 3 may contain frequent but minor errors that do not obscure meaning.
- Bands 1–2 include serious or frequent errors that make text difficult to read.
- Always consider whether errors impact readability before deducting marks.

G9-12 Writing Rubric

	Task completion	Structure	Grammar	Vocabulary	Spelling and punctuation
5	Student writes an extended and sophisticated response, with all aspects of the prompt covered in detail.	Entire response is appropriately structured with awareness of style and audience.	Response uses both simple and complex language structures. Language chosen is appropriate to the task, with only isolated minor mistakes, if any.	Response uses a range of technical and sophisticated vocabulary for the specific topic of the task.	Spelling and punctuation are consistently accurate, even within complex words and sentences.
4	Student writes an extended response, obviously achieving the expected length, which covers all aspects of the prompt.	Response is clearly structured appropriately in paragraphs with evident attempt at an introduction, main body and conclusion.	Response uses a range of simple and complex grammatical structures appropriate to the prompt/questions. Grammatical errors are infrequent and do not affect readability.	Response uses a few examples of more technical or sophisticated vocabulary for the specific topic of the task	There are examples of accuracy in more complex spelling and punctuation. There may be multiple errors, but they mostly don't affect readability.
3	Student writes an adequately extended response, approximating the word count, with most aspects covered (no more than one area of the prompt missed).	Response is written using a paragraph or more which contain a topic sentence and supporting ideas.	Response uses a range of grammar appropriate to the prompt/questions. Grammatical errors may sometimes affect readability.	Vocabulary is adequate to communicate a response to the topic, but may largely depend on common/simple vocabulary.	Common vocabulary is mostly spelt accurately and sentences contain basic punctuation. There may be frequent spelling errors with more complex words.
2	Student expresses several ideas, but more than one area of the prompt is missed or not dealt with in sufficient detail.	Response is clearly structured into sentences but there is little to no attempt to structure into a paragraph.	Response uses only basic grammar to answer the prompt/questions. Grammatical errors may be frequent.	Vocabulary range is clearly limited, and is not sufficient to address some topics in the prompt.	There are examples of accurate spelling and punctuation throughout, but also frequent errors.
1	Student's writing does not cover any aspect of the prompt.	Response does not appear to be structured in any conventional sense, even in terms of sentences.	No attempt at grammatical structures is identifiable.	Response contains very little that can be identified as appropriate vocabulary for the task.	Response contains little to no punctuation and/or almost every word is spelt so as to be barely decipherable.
0	No response, or entirety of response plagiarised.
