Our Friend Group

Our friend group is very special. We are five students who always play, learn, and help each other. At school, we sit together in class and share ideas during group work. During break time, we play football or talk about our favorite games. We listen to each other and show respect. When someone feels sad, we try to make them smile. We also celebrate birthdays and bring small gifts. Our group is like a team – we work together and never leave anyone out. We enjoy spending time together after school too. Friendship in our group means kindness, fun, and support. I feel lucky to have friends who care and make every day better.
