Community Places

In our community, people go to many different places every day.

People go to the hospital when they are sick to get help from doctors and nurses.

Children go to the library after school to read interesting books and learn new stories.

We go to the mosque to pray and thank Allah for His blessings.

Families visit the museum on weekends to learn about old things and history.

Some people go to the park to play and relax in the fresh air.

Others go to the supermarket to buy food and things they need.

All these places make our community clean, happy, and safe for everyone.

Community Helpers

Communities need many helpers to be safe and healthy. Doctors and nurses work in hospitals. They care for sick people and give them medicine. Teachers are also very important. They help children read, write, and learn new things every day. Firefighters are brave men and women who put out fires and rescue people from danger. Police officers keep order in the streets and make sure people follow the rules. Shopkeepers sell food and other things we need. Every helper has a different job, but they all share one goal: helping people in the community. Without them, life would be very hard.
