In the bright and lively classroom, the students eagerly gathered their supplies. Each student had their colourful pencil case open on the desk, filled with neatly sharpened pencils and markers. One student, Mahra, was looking for her ruler to draw perfect lines for her art project. Backpacks and bags were neatly placed against the walls. Everyone was focused enjoying their time learning together.

Text 2

In a small village, there was an old man named Jamil. He had kind eyes that sparkled and a big, funny nose. Jamil loved telling stories to the little children. They would sit around him, excited to listen. Jamil would also help fix their toys and give them sweet treats. Even though he was old, Jamil was very cheerful, and his laugh made everyone smile. The children loved him because he was always kind and made them feel happy. Jamil's kindness brought joy to everyone in the village.
