Text: A Visit to the City (135 words)

My family and I always visit the city on the weekend. We live in a quiet area near a large mountain. The city is much busier! First, we go to the mall to look at the clothes. The mall is very big and expensive. Next to the mall is a beautiful mosque. We often stop there before we go to the park. The park is opposite the big supermarket. In the park, my brother rides his bicycle on the long road, and I sit between two tall trees and read my book. Sometimes, we see a small lake there, too. My favorite thing to do is look at all the tall buildings.

1. Where does the family go first in the city?
A. The park. B. The mall. C. The supermarket.
2. What is located next to the mall?
A. A lake. B. A supermarket. C. A mosque.
3. The word "expensive" most likely means...
A. A. cheap or free.
B. costing a lot of money.
C. very quiet.
4. What is the main idea of this text?
A. How to ride a bicycle safely.
B. Describing a family's weekend trip to the city.
C. Learning about different jobs in a town.
5. Where does the brother ride his bicycle?
A. On the long road in the park.
B. Opposite the supermarket.
C. Between two tall buildings.

Part 3: Reading Comprehension (15 Marks) Present Continuous (questions), Superlative adjectives (smallest, heaviest, tallest).

1 descriptive text (120–150 words); 5 multiple-choice questions (3 options); 3 marks each (Total: 15).

Read the text. Choose the correct answer (A, B, or C).

Text: Animals at the Park (140 words)

Look at the wildlife park! So many animals are here today. The giraffe is the tallest animal, and the rabbit is the smallest. The elephant is the heaviest. What is the tiger doing? It is running fast, following a small path. Who is playing quietly near the sand dune? It is a group of flamingos. What is Saif doing? He is taking pictures. Some small bees are flying over the flowers. We must follow the path to see the animals safely. We can see the light reflecting off the sand dune because the sun is bright. The animals are enjoying their day!

1. Which animal is the tallest in the park?

- A. The rabbit. B. The elephant.
C. The giraffe.

2. word "path" most likely means... ?

- A. a high building.
B. a small road or way to walk.
C. a type of heavy animal.

3. What is the overall meaning of this text

- A. How to build a sand dune.
B. Describing the animals and activities at a wildlife park.
C. Asking questions about where animals live.

4. Who is taking pictures?

- A. The tiger. B. The elephant. C. Saif.

5. If you see a small, light insect flying over the flowers, which animal is it most likely to be?

- A. The elephant. B. The tiger. C. The bee.
