Activity 2 Reading

Look at the adverts for after school clubs and answer the questions with a partner.

- What can the students do at each club?
- Which is your favourite?

READING TIP

An advert tells you about something you can do or buy.

Activity 3 Reading

Read the adverts again. Decide if the statements are true (T) or false (F).

- 1 Students cook in The Tasty Bites Cooking Club.
- 2 Students go to the Spread the News Club on Sundays.
- 3 Students watch movies in the Computer Club.
- 4 Students go to the Desert Bikers Club on Mondays.
- 5 Students go to the Eco Club on Tuesdays.
- 6 Students play tennis in the Al Rihla Jets Football Club.

Activity 4 Writing

In pairs, write an advert for a new school club.
Use the examples in Activity 2 to help you.

Remember to write:

- the name of your club
- the day and time you meet
- What you do

WRITING TIP

Adverts have pictures and information like days and times. The sentences are short. You should say what people can do at your club.

Club name:

THE JUNIOR CHEFS CLUB.

Information:

- Learn to cook tasty food.
- Make easy snacks and sweet desserts.
- Bake cookies and cakes.
- Eat what you make!

Day and time:

Every Wednesday. From
3:45 PM to 4:45 PM.

Activity 5 Speaking

Share your clubs in groups. Which club is the most interesting in your group?

Student 1 (Sara)

- she is in the Reading Club.
- They read fun stories and share what we think about the characters.

Student 2 (Lina)

- she is in the soccer skills club.
- They practice kicking, passing, and score goals every week.

I think the most interesting club is reading club, because they read fun stories and share what we think about the characters.
