Reading

A Day in the City

Today, I had a very long journey to the city center. I usually take the bus, but today I decided to take the train instead. The train was very busy, so I couldn't find a seat at first. I had to stand in the carriage until the next station, which is the place where many people get off.

Once I arrived, I started walking toward the gym. I had to be careful because there were many traffic rules to follow. I reached a corner and saw a sign that said, "You can't turn left". I had to go straight and then turn right at the park.

The route was easy to follow because the traffic light was green for pedestrians. I used the crossing to get to the other side of the road safely. Finally, I arrived at the mall, where I bought a ticket for my trip back home.

Reading:

A Journey Through Time and Travel

Last month, Sarah went on a fantastic holiday. She visited a famous city in the Netherlands. On the first morning, she visited a large museum to learn how people lived in the past. She saw how they used animals and old carts to travel before there was a modern road or a long bridge over the water.

Sarah thinks that cycling is a good idea because it is eco-friendly and cheap. In the afternoon, she met a cyclist who showed her a special cycle path. It was very clean and away from the dirty air of the cars.

On her last day, Sarah had exciting plans. She became a passenger in a hot-air balloon! The flight lasted for many kilometres. As they started to fly, she looked down and saw the beautiful country below. It was an amazing experience that she will never forget.
