Part 2 MAZE: The Titanic's Fateful Voyage

(underline or circle the correct answer)

The RMS Titanic (1. was / is / were) one of the (2. larger / largest / large) passenger ships in the world when it (3. sets / set / setting) sail on its maiden voyage in April 1912. Many people believed it (4. is / were / was) unsinkable because it was built with advanced safety features, making it seem (5. safer / safest / safe) than previous ships. It was certainly (6. luxurious / more luxurious / most luxurious) than many other vessels of its time, offering grand dining rooms and comfortable cabins.

On the night of April 14th, the ocean (7. were / was / are) calm, but the air was extremely cold. Lookouts (8. spot / spots / spotted) an iceberg directly ahead. The officers tried to turn the ship, but the Titanic was simply too (9. bigger / big / biggest) and moving too (10. faster / fast / fastest) to avoid the collision. The iceberg (11. scraped / scrapes / scraping) along the side of the ship, creating holes below the waterline.

Water began to flood the compartments. It soon became clear that the damage was (12. bad / worst / worse) than anyone had initially thought. Distress signals (13. was / were / are) sent out, but the nearest ship, the Carpathia, (14. is / were / was) several hours away. The situation grew (15. desperate / more desperate / most desperate) as the ship began to sink (16. low / lowest / lower) into the icy water. There were not enough lifeboats for everyone onboard, which was perhaps the (17. tragic / more tragic / most tragic) aspect of the disaster. Many lives (18. were / was / are) lost in the freezing Atlantic Ocean that night. The sinking of the Titanic (19. remains / remained / remaining) one of the (20. famous / more famous / most famous) maritime disasters in history.
