Bahrain National Day

أجتهد : يعقوب عبدالله المرباطي

The National Day of Bahrain is held every year on the 16th and 17th of December to celebrate its independence and the Crowning of the King.

The preparations for this important day start weeks before hand. Streets are well decorated with the national flags as well as pictures of His Majesty the King, the Prime Minister and the Crown Prince. Public and private institutions share the joy of this day by decorating their buildings with portraits of The Ruling Family and red and white lights. Streets are also decorated with amazing shapes of trees, pillars and fountains in red and white lights

Last year, the carnival lasted for a week. It started in Manama with groups of people marching at Al Fatteh Highway playing some music and carrying pictures of the ruling family. It was very exciting. Then, the most exciting event started which was the fire-works, people enjoyed it very much. After that, most public and governmental institutions had lovely exhibitions to give people information about their services that they perform which lasted for a week. The following days, thousands of people, citizens and expatriates enjoy the songs, exhibitions and the firework shows that took place in most cities.

Bahrain National Day is really an enjoyable, the most interesting and the happiest event through out the year.
