Read the text carefully:

Imagine future hospitals that look like magical places! They will have friendly robot helpers that bring snacks and toys to children. The walls will change colours and show fun pictures to make kids feel happy.

Instead of waiting in boring rooms, children will play virtual reality (V.R) games while doctors check them. Special machines will scan you quickly without touching you, and medicine will taste like candy!

Doctors will have tiny helper robots to make you feel better faster. The hospital rooms will look like cozy bedrooms with interactive screens where you can watch movies and talk to your family at home.

Write (T) for true statements or (F) for false statements or (NG) for not given statements.

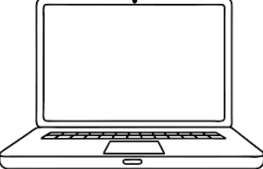

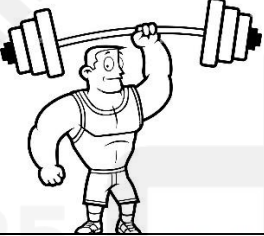

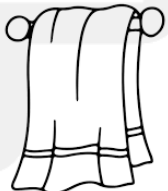

1. Robot helpers will help bring snacks to children in future hospitals ()
2. In waiting room children will do homework while waiting for the doctor. ()
3. The walls change colours and show pictures in the future hospitals.

Write a paragraph about school in the future:

In the future, I think schools will be different. The schools will be on the moon. Maybe, I will go to school by flying car. I think, I will use tablets to read. A Robot will be my teacher. We will play video games with my friends in school.

In the future, schools will be very different. I think, I won't go to school because the school will be at my home by using VR headsets. I will read e-books on my tablets. Maybe, robots will teach me. I will play interactive games with my friends in V.R playgrounds.

In the future, schools will be very different. Maybe, the school will be underwater. I'll go to school by a submarine. There won't read paper books and I'll have glasses like small laptop. Teachers and robots will help me to learn. There will be interactive whiteboards to play games together.
