Q: Read and answer.

Nurses are very important people in our community. They work in hospitals and clinics to take care of sick or injured people. Nurses check on patients to make sure they are feeling better. They give patients medicines that the doctors prescribe. Nurses also help patients with daily activities like eating, bathing, and getting dressed. In addition to caring for patients, nurses also keep the hospital clean and organized. They make sure all the equipment is working properly. All people loves nurses because they work hard every day to help them feel healthy and happy. Their job is not always easy, but it is very important. We are lucky to have nurses in our community.
