George Weekes writes poems and books for all age groups, and sometimes reads his work on television. George Weekes talks about himself saying, 'My parents moved from Manchester to Jamaica where I was born, but East London has been my home for many years now. Tourists never come here. This part of the city has many problems and it is so difficult to live there, but there are also many good things about it. People of many nationalities live in this area, so there are shops with Jamaican bread, African vegetables, Chinese spices and lots of other interesting things. The shop my wife likes best is the one that sells beautiful Indian dresses. The local bookshop is much more friendly than a big store and I'm always happy to talk to people who read my books and poems! I'm 36 years old now but I don't really like 36 years olds! Once people become 30, they think about money too much and say that modern music is too noisy! Almost all my friends here are under 17. I love their language and music. They give me ideas for my writing. Sometimes I go for a run beside the river. There are flowers and animals and even cows there, so it's like being on a farm. I live and work in the city but I still love to live on a farm.'

(1) What does George say about his part of London?

A) Tourists should go there. B) Life there isn't always easy.
C) It's in the city centre.

(5) Most of George's friends

A) are younger than he is. B) read all his books. C) are good at languages.

1. Why does George Weekes like his young friends?

2- Where does he run? ……

4. Read the following e-mail carefully.

Dear Jassim!

I've just came back from the United States. My Dad had some work in Los Angeles, so we all flew there. We stayed there in a small house near Hollywood.

Our house was near the museum, but we didn't have time to go. We went to some malls, which Mum enjoyed a lot, and to some music shops, which she didn't like at all!

I met a famous actor in one of the malls, but I couldn't take a photo with him because I forgot my mobile phone at home. I wanted to go to a basketball match, but mother said: "No".

Last Tuesday, dad came back early from work and took us to the zoo. At night, we went to the cinema to see a movie. I enjoyed my time very much.

By the way, I bought you a nice present. It's a really exciting DVD and it'll help you with your Spanish classes. I'm sure you'll like it. See you next week at school.

Love,

Adam

One of the best things you can do for your body is exercise. But how much is enough? Not everyone agrees on exactly how much people should exercise each day. Some people think that doing simple things like cleaning the house are helpful. Other people do heavy exercise everyday such as running or swimming. One thing experts do agree on is that regular exercise makes you feel stronger and gives you more energy.

Along with exercise, having a healthy diet can help promote good health. Foods like vegetables and fruits should be eaten several times each day. It is also important to eat foods high in fiber such as beans and grains. Fiber helps your body to digest the food you eat. Sweets, chocolate and crisps are fun to eat, but it is not good to eat them every day. These foods contain too much sugar, fat or salt. Fruit and vegetables help you stay healthy and grow strong. Also, drinking milk and water is very important for your body. Milk is good because it contains lots of calcium. You need calcium to keep your body strong. Finally, to stay healthy, you should exercise regularly and eating a healthy diet.

2-Write a short report about your last school camping trip:
"You can use the following :

- when you went
- where you stayed
- what you learned
- what was the weather like
- what you did in the camp.
- what you ate

Last month, we went on a school camping trip. We stayed in tents near a river. It was fun. We learned how to make a bridge over the river. We used ropes and wood . It was very cold and dark.

We fished all day. We cooked food in frying pans on a fire.

We ate fish . One day, it rained and our matches were wet.

So, we started a fire with two sticks. It was an exciting camping trip.
