1 Read carefully and choose the correct answer.How I Became A Tennis Coach*A Petra

I grew up in Germany, but when I was 17, I moved to Spain so I could go to a tennis centre there. It was hard to be without my family and friends, especially when I hurt myself or got ill. However, my tennis improved a lot. After three years, I left the centre and began my career. I started playing in big competitions around the world. I did OK, but wasn't earning enough money, so I quickly decided to become a tennis coach instead. I now teach children who are just starting the game, which is fun.

B Bea

When I was 14, my dad sent me to a tennis centre near my home in Italy. He thought I might become a top player like him, but I saw how much time he spent going from one country to another during his career, and I've never wanted that for myself. My favourite things at the tennis centre were spending time at the pool or having barbecues with friends in the evenings. I'm now a coach, and teach young tennis stars at summer camps in Italy.

C Sara

When I went to live in Spain so I could go to a famous tennis centre there, my dad came with me, and my mum stayed at home in Scotland. My tennis really improved during my two years there, but when I broke my foot it became clear that a career as a tennis player wasn't going to be possible. I went home for a year and then returned to the centre to do a coaching course. I now teach the best young players in Scotland.

2 Read carefully and choose the correct answer.

Young farmer

Young farmer at the age of four, Gavin Clark knew the names of each one of his neighbour's cows. By ten, he was selling chickens and eggs to his friends, and was winning prizes for them at farm shows. Now, at thirteen, he still loves farming and has his own animals. Presents for Gavin are not a problem - every year he gets another animal from his parents and brother. Gavin's father, Steven, works for an international company and travels all over the world. Gavin has visited many excited places in Europe with his father, but he is much happier doing his weekend job on his neighbour's farm. Steven's company wanted him to move to Spain with the family. Everyone liked the idea of living somewhere warm - but not Gavin! He said he wouldn't leave his animals! In his free time, Gavin plays tennis and football. He goes out with his friends and enjoys computer games, just like other teenagers. However, every morning he gets up at half past five to feed the animals' food and water, before he goes to school. His parents want him to go to college and get a diploma when he is sixteen. 'Let's wait and see,' he says.
