A young cheesemaker

16-year-old Pat Smith has an unusual hobby. She makes cheese on the family farm in Australia. She began by making yoghurt with her mother when she was little. Then she started watching her father's workers make cheese. When she was ten, she made some herself for the first time. 'It wasn't great,' she says, 'but the workers told me what I was doing wrong and that helped me to slowly get better.' Pat always needs good milk for her cheese, but she doesn't have to buy it. Her mother and father keep 100 cows on their farm. Pat can just ask them when she needs more. Last year, Pat's neighbour gave her a young cow to keep and look after, but it doesn't produce milk to make cheese yet. Pat and her family make several types of cheese. Recently they won a prize for one of them. 'It's been great for helping customers find out about us,' says Pat. 'Last month we started selling cheese in New Zealand. People there read about our prize in a food magazine. Soon we're going to do some advertisements, too.' Pat's next idea is to post some online recipes for cooking with cheese. 'One of my favourites is cheese with eggs for breakfast. It's great! Our cheese is also lovely with pasta - I hope a restaurant might buy some one day.' But right now Pat is still at school. 'Making cheese is fun and winning a prize for it is great, but doing well in my studies matters more for now.'

Dear Hanan,

Hi. How are you? I hope you are doing well. I'm writing this email to tell you about my favourite sport.

My favourite sport is climbing mountains. I usually climb mountains in safe mountain areas or during trips with my school or family. I climb mountains with my family and friends, and sometimes with a mountain guide. I usually do this activity during the holidays or at weekends. To climb mountains, we need comfortable clothes, strong shoes, and safety equipment. Climbers must be careful and follow safety rules. They must listen to the guide and help each other. Climbers mustn't climb alone or take risks. I like climbing mountains because it is exciting and makes me feel strong and happy.

What about you? What's your favourite sport?

Please write to me soon.

Your friend,

Dana
