Listening 1 Script: Daily Routine Conversation

(Word count: 145)

You will hear a conversation between Ben and Amy talking about their daily routine. For each question, write the correct answer in the gap. Write one word or a number or a date or a time.

Amy: Hey Ben! What time do you usually get up during the week?

Ben: I get up at 6:30 every morning because I like to go for a run before school.

Amy: Wow, that's early! I usually get up at 7:15. What do you do after your run?

Ben: I take a shower, then eat breakfast. I always have eggs and toast.

Amy: That sounds nice. I just grab a banana most mornings. What time do you leave for school?

Ben: Around 8:00. I walk with my friend Lucas. How about you?

Amy: I take the bus at 8:10. After school, I usually do my homework, then I watch a show or read a book.

Ben: I play video games for a bit, then help my mom with dinner. We eat around 7:00.

Answer Key

1- 6:30

You will hear a conversation between two students, Sara and Omar, talking about their week and upcoming plans.

Sara: Hi Omar! How was your day at school?

Omar: It was good! I always enjoy science class in the morning.

Sara: Oh, I prefer art class. What did you do after school?

Omar: I helped my dad in the garden. We planted some flowers and cleaned up the yard.

Sara: That sounds fun! My uncle works outside too. He's a firefighter.

Omar: Wow! That's a brave job.

Sara: Yeah. By the way, did you finish up your homework?

Omar: Yes! I used my tablet to watch videos and write notes. It's really helpful.

Sara: Same here. I've heard that you'll leave for a trip next week, are you ready?

Omar: Almost! I packed my clothes and got my passport.

Sara: Great! Don't forget that next month the school will have a food festival.

Omar: I know! I'm helping with decorations. It's going to be amazing!
