Part-time jobs

Helena

I have a part-time job in a café in the city centre. I work there every Saturday from 9.00 to 5.00 and I have worked there every week for almost a year. I like working there – the customers are really friendly, and they always ask how I am. We get to eat the café's food for lunch – it's all delicious. My favourite is the cheese sandwiches with chips! When I'm older, I'd like to have my own café.

Katja

I have worked in the local supermarket since last summer now and I really enjoy it. I work two evenings a week and a full day on either Saturday or Sunday. Saturdays are the best day for me to work so I can go out with my friends after work and have a rest the day after. It's often very busy at work so the time goes quickly. I prefer it when I'm busy.

Paula

I've got a part-time job in a gift shop. It sells cards and birthday presents, and it also has presents for days like Mother's Day. I've worked there for two years and get on well with the other staff. I work on Saturdays, but in the summer holidays I work on some days during the week as well. We sometimes get people asking what to buy for their family – I like giving them ideas. It's a great job!

Buddy, the Red Panda

Buddy and his brother, Rusty, are red pandas. They were born on 15 June 2013 and have lived in their own cage at London Nature Centre since 2015. Wild red pandas live in India, China and other Asian countries, but experts think that there are only about 2,500 still living in the wild.

Luckily, a lot of zoos and wildlife parks around the world are trying to protect the red panda. They have to eat special food called 'bamboo' which is difficult to buy, so there are over 50 bamboo plants growing at the Nature Centre for the pandas.

Just a few months after the pandas arrived at the Nature Centre, a terrible thing happened – Buddy got out of the Nature Centre. He was very clever though because he stayed close to home, and away from the traffic on the city's crowded roads. It took four days for the workers of the Nature Centre to find him!

One of the people who worked at the Nature Centre and who went to look for Buddy was Trudy Andrews. Trudy's father, Mr Andrews, told her that birds don't like being too close to animals like red pandas and they'll make a lot of noise to keep the panda away. He told her to look for Buddy up in the trees. Trudy heard some birds and looked up and saw Buddy there, just like her father explained.

Everyone was very happy when Buddy arrived back safely, especially Rusty! He happily shared some bamboo with his brother, who looked tired and was very hungry.

A- Answer

1- What kind of food do red pandas eat?

2- How did Trudy find Buddy after he escaped?

3- Why did Trudy's father suggest looking for Buddy by listening to birds?

B- Write (T) if the sentence is True and (F) if the sentence is False.

1- Red pandas live in the wild in South America. ()

2- Buddy escaped from the Nature Centre but stayed close () to home.

3- The Nature Centre workers found Buddy in a cave. ()

C- Circle the correct answer from a, b or c:

- Mr Andrews

A found Buddy in a tree.

B worked at the Nature Centre.

C knew how to find Buddy.

How I spend my free time

Jay Portman describes his unusual hobby, hill running, and tells us why he enjoys it.

Hill running is the sport of running up and down hills and mountains, through open countryside. It's not popular among my friends, but I love it. My dad took me and my brothers out running when we were little, and then when I was about fifteen, I joined a hill running club, called the York Merlins.

There are some excellent runners in the club. When we do our practice runs, I'm always a long way behind them. But that doesn't bother me. They're all really nice and often give me advice. What I love is being outdoors and finding all these beautiful places I never knew were there. We race against other clubs at the weekends. In these races, runners are told where to finish, but not how to get there. You need a good map and compass, so you don't get lost. Everyone starts together at the beginning, but later in the race you often find yourself running alone. Anyone can enter these races – you just get there in the morning, pay your £5, and run. There are no T-shirts or medals for the winners. The most you get is a piece of cake! Often there are international hill running champions taking part, but they are just as friendly as everyone else.

That doesn't mean it's an easy sport. Last weekend I did a race in heavy rain and high winds, and I was asking myself what I was doing out there. But I got to the end, and that was an amazing feeling.

A- Answer

1- What is hill running?

2- Where does Jay Portman go hill running?

3- Who took Jay and his brothers running when they were little?

4- Why do runners need a map and compass during races?

B- Write (T) if the sentence is True and (F) if the sentence is False.

1- Jay Portman's friends love hill running. ()

2- Hill running races always give T-shirts and medals to the winners. ()

3- Jay is one of the fastest runners in his club. ()

4- Anyone can enter hill running races by paying a fee. ()

What We Wear

Write an essay in 100-120 words about how a sport's uniform has changed. Include the following:

- a paragraph about how the uniform was.
- a paragraph about how the uniform is today.
- a conclusion.

Before the 1900s, football players wore simple clothes, making it hard to tell teams apart. The first football uniforms had heavy wool shirts, shorts, and leather boots, which were uncomfortable but kept players warm.

Today, football uniforms are much better. Players wear lightweight polyester shirts, shorts, and cleats to help them move easily. The fabric keeps them cool while running. Each team now has its own colors, like Real Madrid, who wear white.

In the future, football uniforms will keep improving, making players feel even more comfortable and helping them play their best.

Unit 6 - Mix and Mash

Writing: write an article in 100-120 words about some upcycling ideas. Include the following:

- a sentence that describes the idea.
- at least 3 examples to support your idea.
- a concluding sentence.

Upcycling is a great way to turn old or used things into something new and useful.

Many people share creative ideas online. For example, you can use old car tires as plant pots or swings. Broken wooden items can be turned into toys or small tables for your home. Some ideas are more unique, like using a frying pan as a bird feeder, just place it in a cage and add bird seeds.

There are many ways to reuse old things instead of throwing them away.

Upcycling helps the planet by reducing waste. Let's keep our world clean and reuse wisely!

Dear Ali,

How are you? I hope this message finds you well. I am writing this e-mail to tell you about my favourite app. WhatsApp is one of the most famous apps these days. Everyone uses it to connect with friends and family. WhatsApp is free and offers simple messages and calls. It also supports sending and receiving all media like photos, videos and locations. The aim is to let people communicate anywhere all over the world. The app is amazing, but there are two problems. First, you may use it for a long time so the battery comes to be empty quickly. Second, it also makes the phone overloaded by photos and videos. All in all, I give this app nine out of ten. That is all for now. Send me back when you can.

Love, Hamad
