Models of writing for First Intermediate

First Semester

1. Unit 1: Descriptive Writing (a place transformation) Page 21

Think about a beautiful place in your neighborhood. Use describing words to write an article about this place in 100-120 words. Write about the following:

- Recent changes in the places.
- People's feelings before and after.

Last week, our neighborhood park was always dirty, empty, and sad with lots of rubbish and little dead grass. Then some students in our local school decided to volunteer and turned it into a welcoming park. They did a great job. First, they worked on cleaning the park and removed all the rubbish and yellow dead grass. The benches were painted in red, they repaired the playground, and planted a lot of flowers. If you come to the park, you will not recognize it. It is a beautiful place filled with laughter and joy. Now, every day we can enjoy walking there and see colorful and sweet-smiling flowers with green grass. Every corner has a red rubbish bin which makes people use them and stop throwing rubbish in the park. We love going to our clean and splendid park now.

2. Unit 2 descriptive paragraph about someone's unusual job. Page 37

Write a report about someone's unusual job in 100-120 words. Write about the following:

- The title of the report.
- What the job is.
- Where the job is.
- What does he/ she do? (Routines)
- Concluding sentence.

My brother has a great job at the Science Centre. He is a daytime underwater photographer and he rarely works at night. He needs to be very careful. In the early morning, he goes to the centre and checks his tools like the camera and underwater breathing device. He wears his diving suit and fins. Then, he speaks to the divers to ask for information. After one hour, he is in water. He takes photos of many things like sand, coral reefs, fissures, ship wrecks and sea creatures. He also videos some scenes and uploads them on the Centre's youtube channel. Mostly, he spends one hour underwater, but sometimes he doesn't have to be in water, he lectures the visitors of the centre and shows them the photos and the videos. My brother says, 'although I have a tiring job, I still love it!'

3. Unit3 A descriptive writing about an event. Page 55

Write an email in 80-100 words to a friend telling him about a night-time event in a country. Write about:

- Date, time, place.
- What activities happen?
- What you see, hear, taste, etc.
- How people feel.

Dear Sara,

On the 16th of October every year, Bahraini people can enjoy a great event in an open area at night time. The book exhibition lasts two weeks. All kinds of books are available. People can read, talk to authors, and get their signatures. Families, Gulf States' citizens, school students walk happily among the books. There is a corner where people can light up candles, read old scripts of old books, and experience how people read in the past. The smell of leather pieces with ink makes me eager to read more. One thing is astonishing, there is a corner for a kitchen where some chefs cook cakes in shapes of books; even school students can write whatever they want to write using cream. People gather around some poets and listen excitedly. It is really a huge event.

Best wishes,
Reem

4. Unit 4 A paragraph about giving advice. Page 71

Write an email in 80-100 words about how to take care of an animal. Include in your writing:

- An introductory paragraph.
- A paragraph to give advice about
- How to take care of an animal.
- A statement why it is important to take care of this animal.

Dear Bob,

I have volunteered in a Conservation Centre. I am responsible for taking care of a new baby leopard. Her name is Sandy. The hunters killed her mother. I was angry to hear that.

Nowadays I am learning many things. What I should do and what I shouldn't do. If you want to take care of an animal, you should keep them warm and bath them twice a week. You should feed them three times a day with healthy food like milk. You should teach them how to find food and build nests because you need to prepare them to be wild animals.

I have to train Sandy well to set her free after 3 years. It is important to help Sandy depend on herself. I am proud to help her. You should try volunteering, I am sure you will love it.

Best wishes
Alex
