END OF SECOND SEMESTER EXAM 2022/2023

COURSE NAME: ENGLISH LANGUAGE

TIME: 2 ½ HOURS

There are two questions in this listening exam, A & B. You must answer them both.

Listening A

You have one minute to read the questions.

Pause for one minute

Listen to a conversation between Stella and James and circle a, b or c to complete the sentences.

Stella: Listen. I remember you said you were going to buy a new computer. Have you bought one yet?

James: No, I haven't. I've been so busy with exams and the end of term that I haven't had time yet. But I want to get one soon. I need it for school work and stuff. I've already decided which one to buy.

Stella: Right. The thing is, I've just heard that Browns Department Store is going to have special offers on all their computers. Some are 20% cheaper than usual. I think I saw that the one you want has a 15% discount. You wanted an SP47 didn't you?

James: No, I wanted the SP57. It's a new model.

Stella: I saw that one as well. That was down 15%, too.

James: Really? That's not bad for a model that's just come out ... So let's see. The SP57 should cost about £550 instead of £650?

Stella: Yeah. What do you think?

James: Sounds good. Shall we go down there one day?

Stella: All right. The sale is from the 13th to the 19th of April.

James: The 13th is next Saturday, isn't it?

Stella: Yes. Hold on. No. It's a Friday.

James: Well, let's go on Saturday. What road is Browns on? I've never been there.

Stella: It's really easy to find. I've already been there a couple of times with my mum and dad. It's on Wynn Street.

James: What, Win - W-I-N?

Stella: No, W-Y-Double N.

James: Oh, right. Well, why don't we meet there at half past ten on Saturday?

Stella: Half past ten? Great ... Oh, wait, I've just remembered something. I've got to look after my sister until 11 on Saturday. But I could get there for half past eleven. And we could get something to eat afterwards if you like?

James: Yep, perfect. I will need to invite my mom as well though.

Stella: Your mom? Why?

James: The computer's a good price, but still need somebody to pay for it, don't I?

Listening B

You have one minute to read the questions.

Pause for one minute

Listen to someone talking about the Northern White Rhino. For each question, fill in the missing information in the numbered space with one word/number only.

Presenter :

The Northern White Rhinoceros is in danger of extinction.

The Northern White Rhino lives in Africa, in the Democratic Republic of Congo. It lives in the Garamba National Park. This is a UNESCO World Heritage Site, but it's in danger.

Male Northern White Rhinos can weigh approximately 2,500 kilos. That's more or less the same as 30 men!

One interesting fact is that White rhinos are not white. They are grey.

Northern White Rhinos are herbivores. They eat grass. Lots of it! Nearly all rhinos are endangered. Sumatran and Javan rhinos are in great danger. But we can see that the situation of the Northern White rhino is terrible.

In fact, at the moment, the Northern White rhino is not just endangered. It's critically endangered.

In 1960 there were approximately 2,000 Northern white rhinos, but there were only 15 living in 1984. At present, experts think that only four are alive.

The reason for this is hunting. Hunters kill all types of rhinos to take their horns. Organisations are trying to stop the hunters.

To help all rhinos, never, ever buy any products that come from a rhino. Why not give money to organisations like World Wildlife Fund? These organisations use the money to protect the animals from hunters. With only four Northern White rhinos in existence, it's time to do something now, before it's too late!
