Dear Ali,

1- A Summer job (daily routine)

How are you? I hope you and your family are fine. As you know, exams are over and I'm writing to tell you about my summer holiday. I'm working at Adari Park. It's amazing.

In the morning, I usually greet the visitors at the main entrance. I answer their question, show them the where to buy their tickets. In the afternoon, I work at one of the gift shops inside the park. I'm always busy, so I get tired.

So far, I enjoy the job. You need to be cheerful, reliable and outgoing as you have to deal with People everyday. Why don't you apply for a job, too?

Anyway, that's enough for now. Write back soon.

Yours, Salman

2- A visit to a place

Last week, our class paid Bahrain City Centre a visit. It's in Manama. We started our visit in the early morning. We went by bus.

It's a modern multi stores shopping mall. It has some excellent shops and restaurants. Most of the prices were reasonable. We found different amazing things such as computer games. We shopped for a long time and had lunch in a very splendid restaurant. The only thing I didn't like was the fact that it was very crowded.

In fact I spent one of the happiest days in my life. I hope I will visit this shopping mall again.

3- Life in the past

People in Bahrain used to live a totally different life in the past. They used to live in tents or in small houses made mostly of mud. They used to wear traditional light clothes. They didn't have any means of transport except camels and horses. They didn't have electricity. So, they lived under the lights of candles.

There were no facilities we enjoy today like TVs, computers, or magazines. So, the only way of amusement was doing some traditional sports.

Work in the past was hard and tiring. People used to work long hours for less. Life in the past was difficult and tough but it was quiet, simple and calm.

4- A Festival

I have never been to a festival like that of Bahrain National Day. It's on December 16th. The streets are crowded with people, so the atmosphere is lively.

All people are so happy on that day. They decorate their houses with beautiful pictures. They wear traditional, colourful costumes. There are also so many parades to see. Children let off fireworks and take part in different sports. Dancers and bands sing beautiful songs. People try local food like machboos and Fish.

In general, it is one of the best days in Bahrain. I myself enjoy every minute in it.

5- A letter of advice

Dear Mustafa,

I think it's great that your uncle gave you a puppy for your birthday. Taking care of dogs is very easy. Here's what I suggest you do.

You should take him to the vet because he needs different injections and regular check-ups. You should also take him for walks, as exercise is very important for dogs. Why don't you buy him some toys since puppies love to chew things?

Well, I must go now. I hope this helps. Let me know what happens.

Best wishes, Hassan
