Where do you like your home to be? In the city or the village? Some people like to live in the city while others choose to live in the village. But, which place is better to live in?

Some people encourage living in the city. They claim that in the city they can enjoy good services everywhere. Also, they can find better jobs and better living conditions. In addition, there are a lot of modern interesting places to visit. Moreover, it's easy to get better health care and better education.

On the other hand, some others prefer to live in the village. They think that in the village they can enjoy a peaceful, cheap and simple life. Also, they can enjoy the healthy fresh air and beautiful nature. Besides, life there is less stressful and there are no traffic problems. Furthermore, there are good social relationships among people there.

To sum up, everyone chooses where to live according to his life circumstances. Both groups have their arguments and reasons. Personally, I prefer to live in the village to enjoy a simple, quiet and relaxing life.

GRADE 12- UNIT NINE

ARGUMENTATIVE WRITING

Write on the following topic: (Argumentative)

Some people call for the restoration of old buildings while others are totally against the idea.

الناس التي تعارض ترميم المباني القديمة

- collapse at any time
- replace with parks useful for environment
- endless repairs
- provide a home for more people

Argumentative

*Conclusion:

= In conclusion, I think that restoring old buildings doesn't serve the needs of the people nowadays.

Do you think that restoring old buildings is important for our society? Some people call for the restoration of all the buildings while others are totally against the idea.

Some people think that restoring old buildings is very useful for many reasons. First, they are historical places and enrich our heritage. Also, they attract tourists and help to increase our economy. In addition, they represent the traditions of the people who lived there. Moreover, they are considered landmarks in the country.

On the other hand, other people are against the idea of restoring old buildings for many reasons. First, they are dangerous for the people who live around them because they may collapse at any time. Also, it will be useful for the environment if they are replaced with local parks. Besides, the endless repairs of the old buildings cost much money. Furthermore, we can provide a home for many people if we replace them with huge buildings.

In conclusion, I think that restoring old buildings doesn't serve the needs of the people nowadays. Currently, people tend to live an easy life which is full of amenities.

GRADE 12- UNIT TEN

ARGUMENTATIVE WRITING

“You only know yourself when you go beyond your limits.” Some people push themselves to extreme limits , while others think it is extremely dangerous.

*Conclusion:

= To conclude, it is clear that some people enjoy doing extreme sports while others are against them. For me, I don't like these sports and think that nothing is worth risking your life for.

Do you risk your life for fame or money? Some people enjoy doing extreme sports, while others don't and think they are very dangerous.

The main reason why people go for extreme sports is that they like to gain fame. Also, they like to overcome their fears. Besides, they want to gain self-confidence. In addition, they seek to break world records and gain a lot of money. Moreover, these sports help them develop their skills.

On the other hand, some people are against this kind of sport. They think that it is very risky and may result in losing a life. Also, it may cause disability. In addition, these sports cost a lot of money and need a lot of time to train. Moreover, the players need to work hard all their life to keep their skills.

To conclude, it is clear that some people enjoy doing extreme sports while others are against them. For me, I don't like these sports and think that nothing is worth risking your life for.

GRADE 12- UNIT TWELVE

ARGUMENTATIVE WRITING

- Write on the following topic:

Some people think that being a child prodigy is a blessing and has many advantages. Others believe that, without proper nurture and support, growing up as a child prodigy can be stressful and frustrating.

Plan and write an essay of 14 sentences (160 words) presenting both views and stating your own position on the issue.

*Introduction:

- A child prodigy is a child with a great talent at a very early age.

*Body1: - People for child prodigy

الناس التي تؤيد الطفل المعجزة

- achieve better results
- become famous & gain respect
- help improve the society
- gain self-confidence

*Body2: - People against child prodigy

الناس التي تعارض الطفل المعجزة

- doesn't enjoy childhood
- difficult to cope with peers
- chased by the media
- under pressure all the time

*Conclusion:

= To sum up, being a child prodigy can be a blessing and a curse at the same time.

Argumentative

A child prodigy is a child with a great talent at a very early age. Some people think that being a child prodigy is something enjoyable. However, other people believe that growing up as a child prodigy can be frustrating.

Some people think that being a child prodigy has many advantages. First, he achieves better results and excels at school. Also, he becomes famous and gains respect from others. In addition, he can help in improving society. Moreover, he gains self-confidence and learns faster than his peers.

On the other hand, other people think that being a child prodigy has many disadvantages. First, he doesn't enjoy his childhood. Also, it will be difficult for him to cope with his peers. Besides, he needs to work hard to keep his talents. Furthermore, he will be chased by the media. Thus, he will be under pressure all the time.

To sum up, being a child prodigy can be a blessing and a curse at the same time. I think we should give them extra care, but also give them the chance to enjoy their childhood.
