City life and village life

Some people prefer to live in cities while others prefer to live in villages. Both the city and the village have their own advantages and disadvantages.

Some people like to live in a city as it has a lot of advantages. A city has a lot of entertainment places like cinemas, parks, beaches, restaurants, and shopping malls. A city also has good public services and good infrastructure. It is easy to get good paid jobs in cities. On the other hand, a city has some disadvantages, as it is crowded. A city also is full of pollution from factories and heavy traffic. Another bad thing is the traffic jam which leads to tension and other health problem.

Others prefer life in the country for many reasons. They can find many green areas in villages. They can also enjoy its fresh air. But no one can deny that the village has its disadvantages. It is difficult to get a good job in the villages. Poor public services and poor infrastructure is another disadvantage of the country. You cannot find entertainment places in the village and find it difficult to spend your free time.

Finally, everyone has his own reasons about where he can live in a city or in a village. For me, I prefer to live in the city.
