READING COMPREHENSION

Read the following passage then answer the questions

Fatma and Aisha are twins. They were born on August 5, 2016. They are nine years old now, and they are in grade four. Fatma and Aisha do everything together. They are in the same class. They dress alike. They look the same. People always get them confused. This really makes Fatma and Aisha laugh. Teachers always get them mixed up at school. Even their father has trouble telling them apart. Their mother doesn't, though. She always knows who is Fatma and who is Aisha. Fatma and Aisha often try to confuse her, but it has never happened. Fatma and Aisha have the same friends. Their friends always mix them up. Their father told their mother to get one of them a different haircut, so that he can tell them apart. Fatma and Aisha were horrified. They didn't want to look different. Their mother refused to make them cut their hair. The girls were so happy.
