B- Reading Comprehension (16 Marks)

16

Read the following passage carefully, then answer the questions that follow:

Reading is a powerful, valuable, and useful skill a person can have. Through books, we can learn about people, places, and ideas around the world. Reading allows us to understand history, explore science, and learn about the culture and traditions of other countries. It also improves our speaking and writing skills. We need them for school and future jobs.

Stories, on the other hand, can take us on fun adventures and help us imagine new worlds. By reading stories, we can meet interesting characters and learn lessons about being brave, kind, and helpful. Other books give us real facts about travel, nature, and technology. In the past, people only read paper books, but today we can also read on iPads, phones, and computers.

Reading can help us relax and be happy. After a busy day, a good book lets us enjoy quiet time. This is also a good way to spend time.

Reading is more than just a hobby. It opens the door to new ideas. People who read often can think better. They can speak clearly and understand the world.
