software – replace – customer – assist – genuinely

- A: Hello! I need help with this typing task.
- B: Is your computer not working properly?
- A: I think there is a problem with the software.
- B: No problem. We can replace it with an updated version.
- A: That would be great. I genuinely appreciate your support.
- B: You're welcome! I'm always happy to assist every customer.

- ③ Word Story Challenge

1. Write one sentence for each of the following words:

casually, efficient, manner, provide, reject

2. Then, join your sentences into a short story of 4-5 sentences.

3. Your story can be funny, interesting, or realistic.

Example:

Ali casually walked into the library.

The librarian was very efficient and helped him find books quickly.

Her polite manner made him feel welcome.

She offered to provide him with more books, but he had to reject the offer because his bag was full.

Ahmed casually walked into the library, looking for a quiet place to study.

He found an efficient way to organize his notes before the exam.

His teacher explained the topic in a clear manner, making it easy to understand.

The library also provides helpful books and resources for students.

When Ahmed tried a wrong approach, he learned to reject it and try a better method.

Word-Building: Understanding Prefixes (im-, in-, dis-, ir-, il-)

① A. Read these sentences about Ahmed's online experience. Find all the words with prefixes. Then, underline the prefixes.

- Ahmed knew it was impossible to recover his account without changing the password.
- He tried several times, but the screen continued to show an incorrect password.
- He realised it was illegal for someone to steal his personal data.
- Clicking unknown links can be irresponsible, especially without checking the source.
- Ahmed felt distrust toward unfamiliar messages after the scam.

B. Match each word with the correct meaning.

Word		Meaning
1. impossible	2	A. Not correct or wrong.
2. incorrect	5	B. Not trusting or believing in something or someone
3. illegal	4	C. Not responsible; careless or reckless
4. irresponsible	1	D. Not able to be done or achieved
5. distrust	3	E. Not allowed by law

C. Complete the sentences by adding the correct prefix. (dis-, il-, im-, in-, ir-,) to the words.

- Throwing rubbish in the street is il legal by law.
- Don't disagree before you hear the full idea.
- My brother gets impatient if he has to wait too long.
- Lying is ir responsible; always tell the truth.
- If you choose a weak password, your account will be insecure.

② Build New Words

Fill in the missing parts in the following table.

Prefix	Word	New word	Meaning	Example sentence
im-	patient	impatient	restless	Sara was impatient while waiting for the bus in-	active	inactive	lazy	The volcano has been inactive for hundreds of years.
dis-	like	dislike	hate	I dislike eating meat
ir-	regular	irregular	abnormal	He noticed the irregular heartbeat
il-	logical	illogical	unreasonable	Buying a new phone when your old one works perfectly is illogical

③ Prefix Vocabulary Poster

Think of three new words with different prefixes:

- Write each word in a meaningful sentence and underline the prefix.

Look for more examples online and share them with your classmates.

Plan and write a two-paragraph expository report explaining how AI chatbots are used in our daily lives, their benefits, and their limitations. Give examples from school, work, or home.

Paragraph 1: (The benefits of chatbots)

Topic sentence:

Chatbots are very useful in schools and workplaces.

Supporting details:

- They can help students and employees save time by giving information efficiently.
- Chatbots also assist with tasks like checking homework, scheduling, or writing messages.
- Overall, they make learning and work easier and more convenient for everyone.

Concluding sentence:

Chatbots make daily tasks simpler for both students and workers.

Paragraph 2: (The limitations of chatbots)

Topic sentence:

chatbots have many limitations.

Supporting details:

- Chatbots cannot understand human emotions like a real person can.
- They may give wrong or limited answers if the question is too complicated.
- Chatbots also cannot make moral or creative decisions on their own.

Concluding sentence:

Therefore, while chatbots are helpful, humans are still necessary for important decisions and complex tasks
