SUMMARY

The concept of the global citizen comes from the concept of citizenship. There are many communities, in which the human lives in. There is the religious community. Moreover, there is the political group or community. There is the local community. Therefore, we can assume, there is a global citizenship. That is due to the spread of the concept of globalization. We can assure that, the same responsibilities as well the same duties are included in both citizenship and global citizenship. There are many issues, which all human beings have the responsibilities to do.

Those responsibilities can start from keeping the whole environments of the world clean, to participating in the campaigns against the global warming crisis. Moreover, we can uphold the concepts of equality, regardless of the race, religions, colours, genders, sex, etc. We should

In conclusion, we can say that, as we should be responsible citizens towards our countries, local communities, we should be good global citizens. We should identify our responsibilities and duties towards the globe. In addition, we should undertake the environmental issues too.
