SUMMARY

The Omani citizenship has some extra special characteristics than the traditional concept of citizenship. We have a great history as well as many ancient traditions and customs. Moreover, we have a superior hospitality with our guest at homes or our country guests from tourists from around the world. We don't change our traditional clothes or our hospitality with the spread of the globalization concepts and the control of the mass-media as well.

Most of our visitors or guests get impressed with our culture and our integration around our history. Therefore, there are many traditions and ethics, which we should uphold and apply.

We should uphold and respect our traditional clothes on the land of our beloved country, or wherever, we travel. In addition to keeping our society integrated and coordinated as well. On the other hand, we have other superior mission abroad. We should attract the people to our culture by being responsible citizens. When we follow the laws and our old traditions, we would force the other people with other cultures to respect us as well as our culture. We should be responsible citizens in Oman and abroad as well.
