ESSAY SAMPLE

We need to have more festivals and entertainment options to attract tourists to visit our country.

Do you agree or not? Give your reasons.

Festivals are one of the major parts of each culture because of its importance and the heritage and rituals that it holds. Every festival brings a sense of liveliness and glow in each country and spreads happiness everywhere for which we can't deny its significance in attracting tourists. In my view, I totally agree that we need to have more festivals and entertainment options to attract tourists to visit our country. For many reasons.

Firstly, festivals and celebrations represent the culture of a country. Although some festivals are common between many countries, each country has its own way to celebrate. For example, in Oman we celebrate Eid al Adha and Eid al Fitr and some other occasions like Omani Women's Day, National Day and many more. All those occasions represent our culture and also we have a specific way of celebrating each of them. Therefore many residents including tourists enjoy the way we celebrate and they love to join us. In fact they appreciate the way we are holding on to our rituals.

Secondly, tourists' purpose of visiting a country is having fun. Tourists search for places where they can enjoy doing various activities they may haven't done before which makes them indulge with the citizens easily and love the atmosphere there. Furthermore, they want to make their holiday unforgettable by joining the citizens in their celebrations. Since it's been seen that tourists join Omanis in their traditional dances in some of the festivals which feels they are enjoying. So it means they are attracted to such things.

All in all, festivals and entertainment options are one of the adorable tourist attractions which must be taken into consideration. Because it boosts the happiness and the sense of joy in every tourist's holiday. It also helps tourists to know more about the culture of the country and the nature of its citizens. Which is an extremely advantageous way to attract them.
