Last Saturday, I went to the science fair in Muscat with my father and my two brothers. We arrived at 8:00 a.m., and I was very excited to see everything. The fair was amazing, but my favorite part was using a telescope to look at the stars. I loved seeing them so clearly. It felt like I was in space!

After exploring for a while, I got hungry. My father gave me an egg sandwich for breakfast, and it was so delicious. We continued walking around and learning about space and how astronauts live.

The science fair was so much fun. I learned many interesting things and had a wonderful time with my family. I can't wait to visit again!
