Around the world, there are many wonderful places and landmarks that people love to visit. The Great Wall of China stretches for thousands of kilometers and was built long ago to protect the country. The Eiffel Tower in Paris is one of the most famous towers in the world, and millions of tourists climb it every year to enjoy the view of the city. The Pyramids of Egypt are ancient tombs built for kings, and they still amaze visitors with their size and history. In modern times, landmarks like the Burj Khalifa in Dubai show how tall and advanced buildings can be. These places remind us of human creativity, history, and the beauty of the world.

Noora's sister: Hello Noora, what do you do in the park? You go there every day—don't you feel bored?

Noora: Not at all! My friends and I enjoy everything there. For example, right now each of us is doing something:

- 1. The gardener is trimming the trees to keep the place clean and beautiful.
- 2. I am riding my bike along the path, enjoying the fresh air and sunshine.
- 3. Omar and his friends are playing tennis on the court, hitting the ball quickly back and forth.
- 4. Lama and Zainab are scooting together, racing each other with big smiles on their faces.
- 5. Yahya is taking photos of the park, capturing the trees, flowers, and his friends having fun.

Listening 2

script

Sami: Grandad, how do you usually find out about the news?

Grandad: I prefer watching the T.V.. It's easy for me and I can see the pictures too.

Sami: And where do you like to meet your friends?

Grandad: The best place is at home. We sit together, drink tea, and talk for hours.

Sami: Do you ever use social media?

Grandad: Yes, but only once a week. I don't spend too much time online.

Sami: My friend Waleed asked me about your life.

Grandad: Oh really?

Sami: He thinks your life is a bit boring, because you don't use many modern devices.

Grandad: Well, maybe. But I'm happy with my simple life.

Sami: And you make me feel really proud of you, Grandad
