I always remember the first live show in Opera that I have been to. It was in 1998, I was only eleven years old at that time. I went with my mom and a friend of the family. I was very excited. Los Angeles Opera was running the show, the performed "The Magic Flute". I was interested in the magic Flute for the first time several years ago. It was an English version for kids called Mozart's Magic Fantasy. Later ,I learned the entire story of the real opera from a storybook. It was first performed in Italy on September 30, 1791. Mozart wrote and led the orchestra by himself. There weren't many reviews of the first performances. Only few numbers of reviews were written about it. The opera was performed 100 times to crowd of large numbers of audience. It was about a prince called Tomino who was asked to rescue a girl. But he had to go through tests. He was given a magic flute and succeeded to save the girl. The costumes, the sceneries, the orchestra and the performers were all sensational. I've seen three operas later but until now it is my favorite.

1. When did the writer go to see the opera?

2. How did he learn the complete story of the real opera?

3. Who wrote the orchestra of the opera?

4. What is the name of the prince in the opera?

5. What is the name of the writer's favorite opera?

Hi Sara

How are you? You asked me in your last letter to tell you about my sister's birthday party.

It was my sister's birthday last week and she had invited my uncles, my aunts and some of her friends. My mother and my sisters made most of the food for the party. The living room looked very pretty. Balloons of all colours were hanging from the lights and we took away the carpets because we were going to play games there after dinner.

In the dining room, we put the best plates and glasses and table-cloths. We had fish, chicken, fruit and cheese. We played games until midnight and after that we had some more food, because we were hungry. Then we threw the balloons around till they burst.

It was a beautiful party I wish you were here with me. Thank you again.

Your friend

Noura

6. When was the party?

7. Who made most of the food?

8. Where did they put the plates, the glasses, and the table-cloth?

9. Why did they take away the carpet?

10. Why did they have some food?

Good Luck
