Subject: My trip to the capital!

Hi Salim,

I hope you are doing well! I am finally visiting the capital city. It is the busiest place I have ever seen, with a huge population. I arrived at the railway station yesterday with my luggage. Since I am traveling as a backpacker, I chose cheap accommodation in the old town instead of a hotel.

This morning, I visited the tourist information centre. The tour guide was very friendly and gave me a great introduction to the city's past. I spent the whole morning sightseeing! I saw a tall clock tower and a beautiful fountain in the main square. I also took photos of a statue and a monument. These historical buildings are awesome!

Right now, I am sitting in a quiet garden to relax. The temperature is warm and the weather is dry with no rain. It is much nicer than the noisy shopping mall! Getting around is easy, but there is always a traffic jam at the crossroads near the bank. I usually just walk on the pavement and watch the traffic lights. Tomorrow, I will go to the market to buy some gifts for my family.

I will remember this experience forever! See you soon.

Best,

Ali

Dialogue 1

Speaker A: Excuse me, I am a backpacker looking for accommodation. Is there a hostel in this neighbourhood?

Speaker B: Yes! Walk past the fountain and turn left at the traffic lights. It is right behind the library.

Speaker A: Thank you for being so friendly!

Dialogue 2

Speaker A: Look at that huge statue! Is it a famous historical person?

Speaker B: Yes, it is a monument for the city's founder. It was built last century.

Speaker A: It's awesome. Let's take a photo before we go to the museum.

Dialogue 3

Speaker A: We are stuck in a terrible traffic jam! Why are the cars not moving?

Speaker B: There is a large lorry blocked at the roundabout near the railway station.

Speaker A: Oh no! I hope we reach the bus station in time for our coach.

Dialogue 4

Speaker A: Where can I find the tourist information centre? I need a map of the old town.

Speaker B: It is in the main square, right next to the tall clock tower.

Speaker A: Great! I also want to buy some gifts at the market nearby.

Dialogue 5

Speaker A: Did you hear the fire engine? It was very noisy! Speaker

B: Yes, there was a small fire at the bakery on the corner.

Speaker A: I saw the firefighters arrive. Luckily, everyone stayed safe on the pavement away from the smoke.

UNIT 4

Listening (2): The Growth of the Capital City

Listening Script: "Welcome to the city museum. Today, we are looking at how our capital city has changed over the last century. One hundred years ago, the city was much smaller, and the population was low. Most historical buildings were made of wooden materials, which was dangerous because of the risk of fire.

Today, the city has grown in size and is very famous for its modern tower and large shopping mall. Because it is the busiest place in the country, there is often a traffic jam near the bus station. However, the government has created new green spaces and a natural space for teenagers to relax.

The temperature here is usually warm and dry, which attracts many visitors every year. Most people arrive at the railway station with their luggage. From there, they can take a coach to see the sea or visit the art gallery to see beautiful works of art. It is truly an awesome experience for every tourist."
