Walt Disney is a well-known name all over the world. He was the famous animator who created characters such as Mickey Mouse and Donald Duck. Disney's films have entertained millions of people over the years and are still popular today. Walter Disney was born in Chicago on December 5th, 1901. He was one of five children. Many of his first drawing as a child were of farm animals. In 1920 he started making cartoon advertisements. Disney's dream was to make films, so in 1923 he decided to go to Hollywood. Walt and his brother Roy set up their own small company. Disney got married to Lillian Bounds on July 13th, 1925. They had two daughters. In 1928, he created Mickey Mouse, his most famous cartoon character. That was the start of Disney's amazing success. He won many awards for his films, which include Snow White and Pinocchio. His greatest creation, however, was Disneyland, which opened in 1955 in California. Walt Disney died at the age of 65 on December 15th, 1966. Sadly, he didn't live to see the opening of the world-famous Disney World in Florida in 1971.

For each item, shade in the bubble next to the correct option.

Listening (2).

Mark Twain was an American writer. He was born in 1835 in the USA. He had 6 brothers and sisters. When he was 4 years old, his family moved to a village near the river. A few years later, Mark's father died so he had to find a job. In 1857, he worked as a riverboat pilot on the Mississippi River. His salary from this job was very good at that time. Then, because of the war in the USA in 1861 between people of the North and those of the South, traffic along the river stopped and so Mark lost his job. In search of a new job, Mark travelled west in July of 1861, with his brother, Orion. They arrived in a new city where Mark found a job in a newspaper. It was a good chance for him to start writing and make people enjoy reading. In 1870, Mark Twain married a girl called Olivia and her father's name was Langdon. Their first child was also called Langdon. This name was the same as the father of Mark Twain's wife. We learnt about the life of Mark Twain. It is right that he died in 1910, but his books remind us of him. He wrote famous stories such as "Adventures of Tom Sawyer" in 1876 and "Life on the Mississippi" in 1883.

You are going to hear a text about a famous writer.

السؤال الثاني في القراءة

READING 2 (Items 5 –10) (6 marks)

Read the text. Then complete the task :

Dear Maria,

I am having a wonderful time here! We are on a lovely island in the Cyclades, called Santorini. The hotel we are staying at is nice and quiet. It's got a lovely swimming pool. The weather is hot and sunny unlike there at home in Britain. Right now, I am sitting outside a fantastic café by the sea. Paul is snorkeling in the clear water, as usual. He is looking for some shells to take home. Dad is visiting some ancient ruins on the island. Dad enjoys visiting old places. I think they're boring. Mum is buying souvenirs at the market. She loves the market but it's a bit noisy for me. We go to restaurants nearly every night for dinner. My favourite one is by the sea. Mum and Dad always order sea-food but I never do. It's horrible. I order chicken. It's so delicious! The sunsets are spectacular and the local people are really friendly, too. I love it here so much, I never want to leave!

Oh well, that's all for now. See you next week.

Love,
Suzy

Dear Nasser,

As you know, I have started reading novels since I was 12 years old. I was reading a great novel last week titled "Pride and Prejudice" and I really enjoyed that. I am sending this e-mail to tell you more about this lovely novel. Pride and Prejudice is a novel that was written by Jane Austen. It was first published in 1113 in England. It has become one of the most popular novels in English literature and more than 22 million copies were sold. At the beginning, the novel was called "First Impressions" and then Jane renamed it into "Pride and Prejudice". It tells the story of Mr and Mrs Bennet's five unmarried daughters after the rich and smart Mr Bingley and his friend, Mr Darcy, have moved into their neighbourhood. Elizabeth Bennet, the second of the five daughters, plays the role of the main character in the novel. In the novel, she is known as Lizzy. She is twenty years old and she is intelligent, lively and attractive. The major theme in this novel is the importance of environment and development of young people's character and morality. I have enclosed a copy of the novel's cover page and I hope you find this e-mail interesting.

Best wishes,

Ahmed
