When the young Hussain Khalil Heji finished high school, he was very clear about what he wants at career level. He wanted to study law and learn more about the laws affecting people with disabilities in Qatar. After graduating from Qatar University in 2002, he began his career in the Ministry of Justice, where his talent began to shine. He later became an advisor and a representative of the Ministry in the field of disability awareness and culture.

Finally, they cooperate with the "Qatar social and cultural center for the Blind." and other social institutions through monthly events that include lectures meeting and other activities.

Hussain hopes that society will eventually change its view of disabled people and stop seeing them as persons who need pity or compassion. Write an informal email to your friend telling him your latest news.

Hi Ali,

How are you? I hope you're doing great. I have some exciting news to share with you!

Last week, I started a new part-time job at a small café near my house. I was a little nervous on my first day, but everyone was really friendly, and I'm enjoying it a lot. I'm learning how to make different drinks and meet lots of new people.

Also, I joined a football club with some friends. We practise twice a week, and we're already preparing for our first match next month. I'm really looking forward to it!

Apart from that, I've been spending more time studying because my exams are coming soon. It's quite busy, but I'm trying to stay positive and organised.

Anyway, that's all my news for now. Write back soon and tell me what's new with you!

Take care,

Khalid
