A Camping Adventure

Last winter break, my friends and I decided to go on a camping trip in the desert. The first two days were amazing. We enjoyed the sunset, grilled food, and shared funny stories around the campfire. Everything seemed perfect.

However, on the third night, a strong wind started blowing, and our tent was blown away. We were left in the open with no shelter and couldn't find our way back to the car in the dark. Fear started to creep in, but I remembered my father's words, "Panic never solves problems—stay calm and think."

So, we stayed close together, used our phone flashlights to look for familiar rocks, and finally found a small hill to protect us from the wind. We spent the night there, keeping each other warm and taking turns to stay awake.

At sunrise, we spotted a road in the distance and followed it until a passing driver saw us and helped us get back safely. That moment of rescue felt like a dream. The trip taught us an important lesson: when facing challenges, stay calm, trust your team, and never give up.

A Rainy Surprise

Last weekend, my friend Noura and I went for a picnic in the park. The weather was sunny, and we were very happy. We took some sandwiches, juice, and a blanket. We also brought a ball to play with after lunch.

When we arrived, we found a nice place under a big tree. We ate, laughed, and took many pictures. Everything was great, and we were enjoying our time.

But suddenly, dark clouds filled the sky, and it started to rain hard. We ran to the car, but we were already very wet. The ground was slippery, and our shoes were full of mud. We laughed because our perfect picnic turned into a funny, wet day.

When we got home, we changed our clothes and drank some hot chocolate.

That day taught us a lesson: even when plans go wrong, we can still have fun if we stay happy and positive.

Lost in the Forest

My friend Saif and I went on a school trip to a forest. We were very excited to explore nature and take pictures of trees and animals. The weather was nice, and everything seemed perfect.

After lunch, we walked a bit farther to see some birds. But soon, we realized we had gone too far — we couldn't see our group anymore. We tried to call them, but there was no signal on our phones. We were lost.

We stayed calm and remembered what our teacher had said: "If you ever get lost, stay in one place." So we found a safe spot under a big tree, shared our snacks, and waited. When it got dark, we used the flashlight to help rescuers find us.

After some hours, we saw the teachers coming with the park guards. We were so happy and thankful.

This story taught us that staying calm and using what we know can help us get through scary situations.
