Part 2: Reading

Read the text and answer the following questions:

Camels: Ships of the Desert

(1) The desert is a hard place for animals. In the day, it is very hot and dry, and there is not much water to drink. But camels can live there easily. Let's look at how they do it.

(2) Camels can live for many days without water. When they find water, they drink a lot very quickly. The hump on a camel's back stores fat. When there is no food, the camel's body uses this fat.

(3) Camels also have long eyelashes, and they can close their noses to keep the sand out. Their wide feet help them walk on the sandy land without sinking. That is why people call them "ships of the desert".

1. What is the text MAINLY about?

A. Animals of the sea
B. How to ride a camel
C. Hot and cold weather
D. How camels live in the desert

2. What does the hump on a camel's back store?

Saeed's Family

(1) My name is Saeed. I live in a flat near the Corniche in Doha with my family. I have two brothers and one sister. My father is an engineer, and my mother is a nurse at a busy hospital. My older brother, Rashid, is tall and slim. He has short black hair and brown eyes. My little sister, Latifa, is only four, and she laughs all the time.

(2) My grandmother lives with us too. She is old, but she is very kind and tells us wonderful stories. On Fridays, we visit our uncle's farm. We help him water the plants and feed the animals. Rashid wants to be a footballer, so he trains at a sports club three times a week. I love my family because we always help each other.
