Reading Comprehension:

Directions: Read the passage and answer the questions.

Learning has no end. That's what my grandpa said to me one day. He is now 70. When he retired at the age of 60, he joined an evening class to learn how to arrange flowers. I wondered, "Is my grandpa going to learn something new at that old age?" But I didn't dare to ask him directly.

After he had finished the course, he got a job at a great shop that sold flowers and he was greatly happy about the job. What surprised me most is that he decided to join a class to learn music every day after he finished his work at the shop. This time, I asked him, "What is it, grandpa? Are you going to learn music, as well?" He smiled and said, "One is never too old to learn."

6- What's the text MAINLY about?

A. learning doesn't end   B. learning ends quickly   C. collecting flowers   D. music

7- In line (5), what does the underlined word (arrange) mean?

A. want                      B. bring                      C. organize                      D. drink.

8- When did grandpa retire?

When he was 60 years.

9- What did grandpa do after he finished the course?

He got a job at a great shop that sold flowers.

10- What did grandpa want to learn in the end?

He wanted to learn music.
