Reading comprehension:

Read the passage and answer the questions:

Long ago, in ancient German, clever people created something amazing – it is the bicycle! This invention happened over 200 years ago. Before bicycles, people depended on walking, horses, donkeys, or other slower means to move from place to another. Nowadays people use bicycles for transportation, exercise, and free time activities.

To be environmentally friendly at school, there are many things to be done relating to bicycles. First, students should use bicycles instead of cars for short trips whenever possible. Second, schools must encourage students to ride their bicycles to school. Finally, students must take care of their bicycles and gather them in safe places far away from cars' parks. All these things help us reduce pollution and keep our environment clean and healthy.

1- What is the text mainly about?

- A. Making TVs
- B. Making torches
- C. Making bicycles
- D. Making computers

2- What does the underlined word “gather” mean?

- A. let
- B. want
- C. collect
- D. require

3- Where did people discover the bicycle?

In ancient German

4- When did this invention happen?
