White The Dog And The Brave Sheep

- 1) On a quiet farm near a desert village, White, the dog, guarded a flock of sheep. Every night, a sly fox named Black tried to sneak into the barn. “I’ll eat you all!” Black “sneakily” growled. The sheep, like little Lulu, huddled together, scared. Yet, White always chased Black away with loud barks.
- 2) One stormy night, thunder boomed, and rain poured. Black crept closer, knowing the noise would hide his steps. “Tonight, I’ll trick White!” he hissed. The sheep trembled. Lulu whispered, “White couldn’t hear Black because of this storm! We must help!”
- 3) Lulu stomped his hooves loudly on the barn floor. CLOMP! CLOMP! The other sheep joined Lulu to make a clattering noise. White woke up and saw Black sneaking toward the barn. “Bark! Bark!” White shouted, but the storm drowned his voice.
- 4) White ran to the sheep, and Lulu bleated, “Follow us!” The sheep stampeded in circles, kicking up dust and hay. Black froze, confused by the chaos. White barked wildly, and together they looked like a giant monster! Black yelped, “Too scary!” and ran into the dark desert.
- 5) The farmer rushed out and smiled. “You worked together!” he said. White licked Lulu’s head to thank him. The sheep finally learned that even different animals can protect each other by teaming up!
