Reading Comprehension

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

(1) Volunteering is a noble activity where individuals dedicate their time to help others without expecting payment. It is not just about giving; it is a powerful way to gain new skills and build a stronger community. Many teenagers nowadays participate in various charitable projects, such as cleaning local beaches or teaching younger children.

(2) To be a successful volunteer, you must be committed and organised. It is essential to manage your time effectively between your schoolwork and your social duties. Moreover, working in a group is vital because most community projects require collaboration. When people work together, they can achieve remarkable results that are impossible to achieve alone.

(3) There are numerous benefits to volunteering. It helps you become more confident and improves your communication skills. Also, it gives you a sense of achievement when you see the positive impact of your work on people's lives. In my opinion, every student should try volunteering at least once to experience the joy of helping others.

1. What is the text MAINLY about?

- A. How to earn money from jobs.
- B. The importance and benefits of volunteering.
- C. The best places to travel in summer.
- D. Why is school difficult for teenagers?

2. What does the underlined word "remarkable" in paragraph 2 mean?

- A. Simple
- B. Terrible
- C. Negative
- D. Extraordinary

3. What is the meaning of volunteering according to paragraph 1?

4. Why is time management important for a volunteer?

5. How does volunteering affect a person's character?

6. Why is working as a team important in community projects?
