Amy's school needed to collect money to buy more computers. Amy knew that many of her classmates' families were from different countries around the world. They spoke different languages and ate different types of food. Amy had a great idea! She suggested that every student could bring in their favourite dish and sell it at school. She knew parents would be happy to pay money to try foods from all over the world! "That's a great idea," Amy's teacher said. "Let's call it 'Food Around the World'."

Amy brought in her favorite meal, chicken with mashed potatoes. Her friend Amina, from Africa, brought beef with spices over rice with bread. Ibrahim, from Morocco, brought a dish of spiced grilled lamb over white rice. Juan, from Mexico, brought chicken fajitas with Spanish rice. Rajat, whose family is from India, brought in chicken with rice and raita, which is a sauce of yogurt mixed with cucumber. Emily, a vegetarian, brought a meal with no meat. She brought lentil soup, and a salad. Everyone enjoyed seeing, smelling, and tasting foods from many different cultures.

Go to (SB: 31) and (WB: 33 + 34) for deeper understanding of the task.

- When and where did it happen?
- What did you do?
- How did you feel?

Hi Ali,

How are things? I hope you're well. Guess what! I finally arrived to London. It is my first time traveling abroad. It is incredible. Everything here feels new, bright, and exciting. The busy streets and the nice buildings look just like the pictures, but better. I felt a bit nervous at the airport, but that feeling went away very fast.

Yesterday, I went to see Big Ben, the big clock. I also enjoyed the nice British dishes. The flavors are so different and delicious. I am taking lots of photos and making great memories every single day. I cannot wait to see you soon and tell you all about this adventure.

Best wishes,

Rashid
