Around The World in 10 Minutes

(1) New York is the biggest city in the United States and one of the largest cities in the world. However, it is not the capital of the United States. That is Washington. New York is one of the world's leading business centers and it is a busy seaport. In its harbor stands the Statue of Liberty, a symbol of freedom for people all over the world. Many famous skyscrapers have been built, including the Empire State Building and the World Trade Center.

(2) Paris is the capital and the largest city in France. The city has been given the nickname "The City of Light" because it has amazing places to visit. Many people call it the most beautiful city in the world. It contains lovely parks and extravagant malls, which are wonderful. The most popular place to visit is the Eiffel Tower, a tall steel structure that is known all over the world as the symbol of Paris.

(3) Tokyo is the capital of Japan. It is very crowded because about seven percent of the population of Japan lives there. It is the main business center of Japan, and in many ways, Tokyo is like New York. It has tall skyscrapers and huge highways. The city is the home of Japan's emperor. His palace stands in a beautiful park in the center of the city.

(4) London is one of the most historic cities in the world. It is the capital of the United Kingdom. At the end of 19th centuries, over 8 million people lived in and around London. There are many fine old houses in central London, and many of them have become offices or hotels.
