Read the passage and answer the questions.

3) What is the MAIN PURPOSE of the text?

- A. To explain the risk facts of football
- B. To check what happened by 1800.
- C. To inform the reader about the history of football.
- D. To remind the readers about the first international football

4) According to paragraph 2, what is the closest meaning to the word “versions “?

- A. forms
- B. corner
- C. original
- D. challenge

1. Football, which is also known as soccer, has a long rich history spanning centuries and cultures. It is thought to have originated in China around 2,000 years ago, with variations of the game played by small communities throughout Europe during the Middle Ages.

2. By the 1800s, different versions of sport were being played across England. In 1863, representatives of several London clubs met to create a unified set of rules which became known as The Laws of Football Association (FA). In 1872, Scotland and England joined forces to form an international association – The FA International Board – which continues to govern football today.

3. The first international soccer match took place in Glasgow on 30th November 1872 between Scotland and England. This was followed by the establishment of FIFA in 1904. FIFA was set up with the purpose of governing and promoting football across the globe, and today it has 211 member nations.

4. In the early 20th century, soccer/football began to take hold as one of the world's most popular sports. This popularity has continued to grow ever since and is now considered to be a global phenomenon because clubs from all over the world are competing for prestigious titles. In addition, international competitions such as the World Cup have become some of the most popular sporting events in history.

5. Football continues to evolve as it expands around the world, but its core principles – teamwork, respect for opponents, fair play, and sportsmanship – remain unchanged. I think it is a sport that unites people from all walks of life, and it will continue to be enjoyed for many more years to come.

5) According to paragraph 1, what is the origin of Football/Soccer?

It is thought to have originated in China around 2,000 years ago

6) According to paragraph 3, when did the first international soccer match take place?

The first international soccer match took place in Glasgow on 30th November 1872

7) According to paragraph 4, Why is football considered a global phenomenon today?

because clubs from all over the world are competing for prestigious titles.

8) According to paragraph 5, what's the writer's opinion about football?

I think it is a sport that unites people from all walks of life, and it will continue to be enjoyed for many more years to come.

3) What is the MAIN PURPOSE of the text?

- A. To give information about TikTok
- B. To explain when TikTok launched
- C. To provide easy way to share video
- D. To remind people about video sharing

4) In paragraph (1), what is the closest meaning to the word “popular”?

- A. poor
- B. scary
- C. horror
- D. famous

1. TikTok is a video-sharing app that has become incredibly popular among young people around the world. But what is TikTok, and where did it come from?

2. TikTok was launched in China in 2016 under the name Douyin. It was created by the Chinese tech company ByteDance, which saw an opportunity to capitalize on the growing popularity of short-form video content. The app quickly became a hit in China, and ByteDance decided to launch it globally under the name TikTok in 2018.

3. TikTok is so popular because it provides a fun and easy way to create and share content. The app is designed to be user-friendly, and its features make it easy to create professional-looking videos without a lot of technical skill. Additionally, TikTok is a platform that encourages creativity and self-expression, allowing users to showcase their talents and connect with others who share their interests. As of 2024, TikTok has approximately 1.5 billion monthly active users globally. This represents significant growth from around 700 million users in 2020.

4. TikTok involves popular songs or videos and can quickly spread across the platform. I think TikTok has a lot of benefits, but we should use it wisely and carefully.
