Reading

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

- (1) Qatar has many beautiful parks that offer families and visitors relaxing places to enjoy nature. Before the country developed its modern cities, there were only a few small green areas. Today, Qatar has built many large parks with clean walking paths, green fields, and special areas for children. These parks are free for everyone and open all year round.
- (2) The government understands the importance of having parks for the health and happiness of the community. For this reason, it continues to create more public parks in different parts of the country. Many parks have useful facilities such as playgrounds, sports fields, cafés, and exercise areas. Some parks also have fountains and small lakes that make them more attractive.
- (3) People visit parks in Qatar for many reasons. Families go there to have picnics, children play safely, and adults enjoy walking or exercising. Most parks open early in the morning and close late at night, especially during the cooler months. I believe that the parks in Qatar are clean, well-organized, and thoughtfully designed, which is why many people enjoy spending their free time there.

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow:

(1) Falcons are one of the most important and respected birds in Qatar. For hundreds of years, people in Qatar used falcons for hunting in the desert. Falcons helped hunters catch animals for food, and they were highly valued because of their strength, speed, and sharp eyesight. Today, falconry is still a popular sport, and many families continue this ancient tradition.

(2) The government and local organizations work hard to protect falcons and teach people how to care for them. In Qatar, there are special hospitals for falcons where they receive medical treatment and regular checkups. Training centers also help new falconers learn the skills needed to train and look after these birds.

(3) Falcons are trained carefully by experts. They are taught to fly, return to their owners, and hunt safely. Every year, Qatar holds falcon competitions and festivals where people gather to watch these amazing birds show their abilities. I think that Falcons in Qatar are not only used for sport, but they also represent culture, history, and pride.
