Reading

- 1 His full name is Umar ibn Al-Khattab ibn Nofal ibn Abdul-Uzza. His known nickname was Al Farooq because he showed his Islam openly in Makkah. He was born in 583 AC.
- 2 In regard of his physical characteristics, he was white with a reddish complexion. He was muscular and tall. He was very strong, and when he spoke, he spoke clearly. From his early youth, he also excelled in many kinds of sports, such as wrestling, riding, and horsemanship. He enjoyed poetry, and he was interested in the history. He engaged in trade and learned the history of the Arabs and the battles that had taken place among the tribes, which made him one of the richest men of Makkah.
- 3 Umar converted to Islam because of his sister Fatima after he saw her and his brother-in-law reciting the verses of the Quran. Umar attacked his brother-in-law, and when his sister came to rescue her husband, he slapped his sister so hard that she fell on the ground and started bleeding from her mouth. Umar calmed down out of guilt and asked Fatima to give him what she was reading. She refused to give him the Quran because she said, "You are unclean, and no unclean person can touch the Quran."
- 4 Umar washed his body and then began to read the verses that made him cry, saying, "Surely this is the word of Allah. I bear witness that Muhammad is the Messenger of Allah." Umar then went to Prophet Muhammad and accepted Islam in front of him. He was 39 years old when he accepted Islam.
