READING COMPREHENSION

47. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

(1) Jack and his class visited the Ellis Island Museum with his friends. This museum is in the building where immigrants to the United States arrived a hundred years ago. It has cabinets showing how people came to America. The class took a ship that moved past the giant Statue of Liberty. When they arrived at Ellis Island, Jack noticed that the museum was in a big, white building.

(2) A guide was waiting for them at the museum. "Immigrants had to put their baggage inside old suitcases and baskets.", the guide said. "They spent long trips on very crowded ships. They knew they might never return to their old countries back again."

(3) At the museum, Jack saw old-time dresses, boots, and other clothing from different countries. He looked at letters, passports, and old documents. Jack and his friends watched some video interviews. Immigrants felt proud to become Americans. Jack also felt proud because his parents had immigrated to the United States, too. He thinks that he should interview them when he goes back home because he wants to know more about how his parents came to America.

Immigrants: People who move to a new country where they settle down.

3. What is the text mainly about?

- A. A trip to a museum
- B. A chess competition
- C. An amazing TV show
- D. An interesting holiday

4. How did the class get to Ellis Island?

- A. by bus
- B. by ship
- C. by train
- D. by plane

5. What does the underlined word "giant" in paragraph (1) mean?

- A. huge
- B. small
- C. tidy
- D. tiny

6. According to paragraph (2), where did immigrants have to put their baggage?

7. According to paragraph (3), how did immigrants feel about becoming Americans?

8. According to paragraph (3), why does Jack think he should interview his parents?

READING COMPREHENSION

48. Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

(1) Scientists think that modern technology should be used as little as possible. They think modern technology affects our health. They say it is better to be cautious about using mobiles for long hours because they are harmful to our health. Mobile phones are bad for children. The phone companies will tell you that phones are safe. But remember, these phone companies are selling a product, and they won't tell you it is unsafe.

(2) I think technology will be the next generation that causes you serious harm and terrible illnesses. In fact, research claims mobile phones could kill more people than smoking. Wireless (Wi-Fi) can cause headaches and memory loss for some people. Technology can be particularly harmful if you are sensitive to it. Many people spend a lot of time on technology. For example, some people spend many hours watching TV. while others spend many hours on computers, video games and phones.

(3) Electrical gadgets in bedrooms can also cause sleep problems. It is best to have no electronic items in your bedroom. But if you can't do without them, make sure that they are turned off. Your health is very "important" and taking care of it helps you live longer and have a happier life. I think technology is very helpful because it makes learning and communication easier. But we should use it wisely and not spend too much time on it.

1. What is the text MAINLY about?

- A. Online shopping
- B. Technology and health
- C. Dangers caused by smoking
- D. Useful uses of mobile phones

2. What does the underlined word "important" in paragraph (3) mean?

- A. difficult
- B. generous
- C. necessary
- D. safe

3. According to paragraph (3), what can electrical gadgets cause in bedrooms?

- A. easy moving
- B. fast learning
- C. sleep problems
- D. comfortable nights

4. According to paragraph (1), why won't phone companies tell you that their products are unsafe?

5. According to paragraph (2), how does Wi-Fi affect people?

6. What is the writer's opinion about using technology?
