Unit 6 Going Green Listen and Discuss

- Briefly describe one change, real or imaginary, that you have made to live a “greener” lifestyle. For example, say: I bring my own bag when I go to the supermarket. Or, I put glass bottles in the recycling bin. Ask students to guess why you do these things. (to protect the environment) Then with books closed, ask students the introductory questions on page 86: What does it mean to go green? What are some ways that people can go green? Discuss possible answers as a class

- Have students work with a partner to create three more questions and answers to add to the quiz. They should include a, b, and c answer choices as in the questionnaire on page 86.
- As students are working, go around and help as needed with vocabulary or ideas.
- Have students pass their questions around the room and have several other pairs answer them.
- Discuss the responses to the questions with the class. How green are the students in the class?

Unit 6 Going Green Grammar

- Students are familiar with the -ing form of verbs used with progressive verbs. Explain that the -ing form can also be used as a noun. When an -ing form is used as a noun, it is called a gerund.
- Write these sentences on the board: We're eating more organic fruits now. I prefer eating organic foods. Elicit that in the first sentence eating is part of the present progressive verb are eating. In the second sentence, eating is used as a noun. It answers the question What? after the verb prefer.

- Focus students' attention on the picture. With the class, brainstorm one or two things Faisal can do to be more green; for example, recycle cans and bottles. Have students work individually to write a paragraph. Tell them to check the lists of words in the grammar charts for words they can use to express their ideas. For example: Faisal needs to..., Faisal should quit..., He should try to

Unit 6 Going Green Reading

- With books closed, ask if students have ever had the experience of living without things like electricity and running water for even a short period of time. What did they do? How did they adapt? Their parents or grandparents may also have told them about their experiences.
- Have students look at the title and the photos. Remind them that they saw a photo of a wind farm at the start of the unit as well. Ask: What is this? What does it do? (It's a wind farm. It generates electricity.) Ask: What do you think the grid is? What does it mean to live "off the grid"? Elicit ideas and make notes on the board, but don't confirm or deny responses at this time. This will be explained in the article.
