Jokes and Laughter

Although people all over the world like to share jokes and laugh with each other, all cultures have their own style of humor. What people find funny in one culture may not be amusing in another culture. It is important to remember this when trying to tell a joke to someone from another culture. Also, when you are visiting a different culture, don't get discouraged if you do not understand the humor. Jokes often involve very advanced or slang language, and they also require a deep understanding of the culture. The deeper the understanding you have of a culture, the better you will understand the humor.

However, although people from different cultures laugh at different things, they all do laugh. All cultures seem to agree that laughter really is the best medicine. Read the following quotes and proverbs about laughter that come from different cultures.

A good laugh and a long sleep are the best cures in the doctor's book. – Irish Proverb

A cottage where laughter lives, worth more than a castle full of tears. – Chinese Proverb

No one was ever hurt by laughter. – Japanese Proverb

People show their character by what they laugh at. – German Proverb

A day is lost if one has not laughed. – French Proverb

1. Which is the main idea of the reading?

- A. You should never tell a joke to someone of a different culture.
- B. Some cultures do not laugh as much as others.
- C. People laugh at different things, but humor is enjoyed by all cultures.
- D. You don't need to understand a language to understand a culture.

2. Which sentence has the same meaning as the Irish proverb?

"A good laugh and a long sleep are the best cures in the doctor's book."

- A. You can learn how to laugh and sleep from a book.
- B. Doctors laugh a lot and sleep a lot.
- C. The more you laugh and the longer you sleep, the better you will feel.
- D. The longer you sleep the louder you will laugh.
