Once upon a time, there was a fast hare and a slow tortoise. The hare laughed at the tortoise because he moved very slowly. "One day, I will beat you in a race," said the tortoise. The hare laughed, but he agreed. The animals made a long path through the forest, and the race began. The hare ran very quickly and soon was far ahead. He looked back and said, "The tortoise is very slow, so I can rest under this tree." Soon, the hare fell asleep. While the hare slept, the tortoise walked slowly on and on. He didn't stop and he did not look back. At last, the tortoise reached the finish line. The animals cheered loudly. The hare woke up and ran very, very fast, but it was too late. The tortoise won the race, and everyone learned that slow and steady work can help you win! The tortoise lived happily ever after.
