Grammar

1 Read and choose the correct answer.

Last week, my family and I decided to go to the countryside. We wanted to spend the day next to a lake and have lunch there. It was a beautiful day. We wanted to go swimming, but we forgot to bring our swimsuits. So we decided to have lunch. Luckily, we were forced to bring our lunch. After lunch, we were forced to walk around the lake. We love walking around the lake!

1 To is placed before / after the main verb to form the infinitive.
 2 We use the base / gerund form of the verb to form the infinitive with to.
 3 We use the infinitive / gerund after the verb want.
 4 Walking is the gerund / infinitive of the verb walk.

2 Read and complete the chart.

| Verb + to infinitive  | Verb + ing   |

Story

1 Look at the picture. What do you think that Austin and his cousins are doing?

2 Listen and read.

The children are going to have a flag hunt in the forest. Mrs. White was telling them the rules. "You have to find a flag in each place. And remember, you can't use the same flag twice." Lucy and Austin decided to go to the lake first. "Look, a flag! Let's go to the cave next," said Austin.

Sarah and Jose found the blue flag. "I'm going to pick it up," said Jose. "Oh no," she cried. "I can't pick it up." A few hours later, the children went back.

"The yellow team found four flags. You win today's flag hunt," said Mrs. White. "Good job! Here, take one of our flags. We saw that you collected all your trash and you couldn't finish," said Lucy. "Thank you!" said Jose and Sarah.

3 Read again and choose the correct words.

1 The yellow team goes to the field first.
 2 The yellow team finds / doesn't find a flag there.
 3 The blue team closes / doesn't close their backpack.
 4 The blue team needs to / doesn't need to collect their trash.
 5 The blue / yellow team wins the flag hunt.
 6 The yellow team doesn't give / gives a flag to the blue team.

The children were going to have a flag hunt in the forest.

Mrs. White was telling them the rules. "You have to find a flag at each place. And remember to pick up your trash!"

Lucy and Austin decided to go to the lake first. "Look, a flag! Let's go to the cave next," said Austin.

Sarah and Jose from the blue team were walking to the waterfall. "Look! A flag," said Jose. "Let's go to the hill next." They didn't see that Sarah's backpack was open.

Sarah and Jose were climbing the hill. Sarah saw that some trash from her backpack was on the ground. "Oh no," she cried. "We have to pick it up."

A few hours later, the children went back.

"The yellow team found four flags. You win today's flag hunt," said the teacher.

"Here, take one of our flags. We saw that you collected all your trash, and you couldn't finish," said Lucy.

"Thank you!" said Jose and Sarah.
